Abstract

This research aims to examine the effect of the type of industry, managerial ownership, institutional ownership, foreign ownership, the number of board members and non duty members effect the performance of intellectual capital in companies listed on the Indonesian Stock Exchange (BEI). Independent variables used in this research is a kind of industrial, managerial ownership, institutional ownership, foreign ownership, the number of board members and non duty members.

Samples from this study using the 362 companies listed on the Indonesia Stock Exchange in the period 2012-2016 were selected using purposive sampling method. SPSS version 21.0 is used in testing outlier and Eviews version 7 is used in analyzing the data and regression in hypothesis testing.

The results of this study indicate that this type of industry, managerial ownership, institutional ownership, foreign ownership, and the number of board members did not significantly affect the performance of intellectual capital, non duty members significant negative effect on the performance of intellectual capital.

Keywords: Intellectual capital, industry types, managerial ownership, institutional ownership, foreign ownership, the number of board members and non duty members.