

ABSTRACT

"DESIGN OF CREDIT AGREEMENT FOR FINANCING MOVING GOODS IN PT. YAKIN MATAHARI TIMUR AT BATAM CITY ”

Calvin

NPM: 1551117

PT. Yakin Matahari Timur is a legal entity that provides consumer financing services. Implementation of Job Training aims to provide assistance to companies related to credit agreement issues, PT. Yakin Matahari Timur does not use credit agreements or financing agreements as a basis for financing its consumers. The period of implementation of this practical work starts from June 25, 2018 to August 5, 2018.

This Job Training applies Empirical research methods, where the author directly confronts these problems and resolves them. This research method is carried out in several stages, starting with preparation, assessment and assessment and reporting. This research method applies the method of collecting data sourced from the results of observations and interviews so as to provide convenience to the authors in the implementation of Job Training and design output of this Job Training.

The executive summary aims to provide an understanding relating to the design of credit agreements / financing agreements that become outputs of projects from this Job Training, which of course has been designed and will be implemented in PT. Yakin Matahari Timur.

Keywords: Credit Agreement, Financing Agreement, Credit, rights and obligations