

ABSTRACT

Compile Financial Statement For CV. Seven Auto

Nilsen Hengatari

NPM: 1441142

This internship report goal is to solve CV. Seven Auto problem where the company doesn't yet have any financial statement leading to inability for taking any company actions. The internship report was 3 months long, start from 01 November 2018 to 31 January 2019. Research method used in this internship report is observation and interview.

Result of this internship report is a computerized financial statement that consist of balance sheet statement, income statement, change in equity statement, cash flow statement, and account payable statement. Also researcher included inventory report for stock checking or management and price of product to be sold.

System used to make this financial statement is with Microsoft office excel. After that the training program process is carried out gradually, the result then is being implemented very well on CV. Seven Auto.

Keyword: System, Financial Report, Business.

