

UNIVERSITAS INTERNASIONAL BATAM

Faculty of Law
Law Study Program
Odd Semester 2019/2020

LEGAL PROTECTION IN SCRAP BUYING AND SELLING TRANSACTIONS IN PT. INLOGAM HIMALAYA

Marco Lieonando
NPM: 1651268

ABSTRACT

PT. Inlogam Himalaya is a company that deals in scrap buying and selling, basically this company collects scrap in advance and will sell it to its buyers. This practical work is carried out with the aim of analyzing the problems found in the company which problems can cause problems for companies that this problem can result in companies experiencing losses. As long as the authors do practical work in PT. Inlogam Himalaya Blog for approximately 3 months the authors found that the sale and purchase transactions carried out by PT. Inlogam Himalaya can suffer losses due to the transaction.

when the authors do practical work the authors do data collection by looking directly at the activities carried out by PT. Inlogam Himalaya both operational and other activities. Data collection by the author is the collection of empirical data, it aims rather authors can directly provide solutions to the problems faced by the company.

For the project output the writer will apply in the form of a sale and purchase agreement between PT. Inlogam Himalaya and its buyers. The author makes the outcome of the project sale and purchase agreement is aimed at the future PT. Inlogam Himalaya can avoid losses caused by business partners or companies that intend to deceive PT. Inlogam Himalaya. The project outcomes were written by the author and PT. Inlogam Himalaya is the fulfillment of the obligations of the parties involved in the sale and purchase transaction and the authors make the agreement in the agreement in general so that the company can easily understand the contents of the agreement and can multiply so that if necessary it can be used directly.

Keywords: Agreement, sale and purchase transactions, legal protection