

data and will process the order to the production. After received the order the production will make the cake accordingly.

After the cake done the production will pass the cake to decoration. From there the decoration or 3D will make the design as per request by the customers and confirm with the shop admin. When the cake is done the shop admin will check against with the order put and pack accordingly and wait for the customer to come and collect on the time had been request.