

JURIDIS REVIEW OF MAKING AND MEASURING SHIP STANDARDS OF DELIVERY IN THE MINISTRY OF PORT RELATIONSHIP, CITY OF BATAM

ABSTRACT

Wilyon Fanus*

Regulation of the Minister of Transportation and the Director General of Land Transport which aims to improve transport safety River, Lake and Ferry Operator infrastructures and facilities and human resources fields of river, lake and ferry violating the fulfillment of the requirements of transport safety

Identification and Measurement of Ships Standard as well as for increasing understanding and awareness of the registrar and physical inspection and document standard ship procedures Vessel Identification and Measurement Standards, so it will affect the shape of a ship's construction.

How to measure a standard vessel using ship measurement in accordance with the International Convention on Tonnage Measurement of Ship, Legal Basis Law No. 5 of 1983 on the Indonesian Exclusive Economic Zone. Law No. 21 of 1992 on the voyage; Law No. 31 of 2004 on Standards. Government Regulation No. 15 of 1984 Regarding the Management of Natural Resources Conservation at the Indonesian Exclusive Economic Zone. Government Regulation No. 15 of 1990 on Business Standard. Jo. No. 141 Year 2000 Government Regulation No. 51 of 2002 on Shipping. Decree of the Minister of Marine and Standard No. 10 of 2002 on Business Licensing Standards. Regulation of the Minister of Transportation No. KM 6 Year 2005 on Ship Measurement.

The need for the role of government, namely the Ministry of Transportation is one of the competent authority in setting standards seaworthy boats on the harbor road government appointed by the minister and has the highest authority to run and supervise.

Key-word: Sailing Ships Measurement Standards

* Graduate Program, Justice of Law Program of Internasional Batam University.