APPLYING ACCOUNTING SYSTEM ON AMI FLORIST

Shelly
NPM: 1641179

ABSTRACT

Ami Florist is a shop business that produces a variety of bouquets that have been run in 2016. The business offers the reception of various types of flowers for an event, from corporate events to weddings to provide beautiful decorations around it. Over time the store business began to be in demand by sales both online and offline at other businesses. Therefore, competitors will emerge in doing business that will have an impact on the depreciation of Ami Florist sales.

In this practical work the author helps business owners overcome obstacles encountered. Implementation of a bookkeeping system of Ami Florist. This practical work is carried out in the period from September 1, 2019 to December 1, 2019. Implementation of this practical work the authors do methods such as interviews.

This practical work on the design of bookkeeping systems in the form of general journals, income statements and others related to finance. Based on the feasibility aspects of this business venture. A florist is declared feasible to run and has a profitable prospects in the future.

Key words: Applying Accounting System, Ami Florist.