

2. To prevent the violation against IHL, especially in the recruitment and use of children in the armed conflict, international communities have to campaign regarding to IHL and armed conflicts in order to encourage states and armed forces or armed groups to be more aware and obey either the principles, purposes, or the law of international humanitarian itself.